UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT MEMORANDUM

To: Honorable George P. Kazen

From: U.S. Probation Officer Ruben Cantu
Laredo-Division

Subject: Urbano Esteban-Garza
5:02CR00177-001
Request for Early Termination

Date: February 9, 2005

The aforementioned defendant was sentenced on April 5, 2002 by your Honor for Possess with intent to distribute a quantity in excess of 50 kilograms marihuana. He was given 18 months custody to follow with 3 years of supervised release. In addition, he was ordered to pay a $100.00 special assessment fee and 75 hours of community service.

Mr. Esteban-Garza started reporting to our division on June 13, 2003 and has maintained compliance while under supervision. Furthermore, he has completed one year and seven months of his supervised release and paid off his financial obligations to the Court. In addition, he has completed his 75 hours of community service. He now qualifies for an early termination. Mr. Esteban-Garza has maintained stable residence and his record checks have not exhibited any criminal activity nor any arrests. Therefore, this office is recommending that the defendant be given an early termination of supervision only and a Form 35A is being submitted for the Court's consideration.
